OFFICE OF PETITIONS

In re Application of :
Brian Labrec : DECISION ON APPLICATION
Application No. 10/677,092 : FOR
Filed: September 30, 2003 : PATENT TERM ADJUSTMENT
Atty. Dkt. No. 38820-534001US :

This is a decision on the "REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION OF PATENT TERM ADJUSTMENT UNDER 37 C.F.R. 1.705(b)," filed on December 17, 2009. Applicants request that the initial determination of patent term adjustment be corrected from eighteen (18) days to forty-eight (48) days. Applicants additionally state that the correction is requested in view of the decision in Wyeth v. Dudas, (D.D.C. 2008). As applicant raises the issue of delay under 37 CFR 1.702(b), the petition will be treated as a petition requesting correction, in part, on the basis that the Office will take in excess of three years to issue this patent.

The application for patent term adjustment is GRANTED to the extent indicated.

The Office has updated the PALM and PAIR screens to reflect that the correct Patent Term Adjustment (PTA) determination at the time of the mailing of the Notice of Allowance is FORTY-EIGHT (48) days. A copy of the updated PALM screen, showing the correct determination, is enclosed.

To the extent that the instant application for patent term adjustment requests reconsideration of the patent term adjustment as it relates to the Office's failure to issue the patent within 3 years of the filing date, the application for patent term adjustment under 37 CFR 1.705(b) is DISMISSED as PREMATURE.

Knowledge of the actual date the patent issues is required to calculate the amount, if any, of additional patent term patentee is entitled to for Office failure to issue the patent within 3 years. See § 1.702(b). (This is true even where a request for continued examination (RCE) was filed). The computer will not undertake the § 1.702(b) calculation until the actual date of issuance of the patent has been determined. Likewise, the computer will not calculate any further Office delay under § 1.702(a)(4) or applicant delay under § 1.704(c)(10) until the actual date of issuance of the patent has been determined. As such, the Office can not make a determination on the correctness of the patent term adjustment until the patent has issued.

Requesting reconsideration of the patent term adjustment to be indicated on the patent under 37 CFR 1.705(b) based on the initial determination of patent term adjustment and a projected issuance date of the patent (or even the filing date of the request for continued examination) is premature. Accordingly, it is appropriate to dismiss as premature such a request.

Rather than file an application for patent term adjustment under 37 CFR 1.705(b) contesting the 37 CFR 1.702(b) calculation at the time of the mailing of the notice of allowance, applicants are advised that they may wait until the time of the issuance of the patent and file a request for reconsideration of the patent term adjustment pursuant to 37 CFR 1.705(d). As the USPTO does not calculate the amount of time earned pursuant to 37 CFR 1.702(b) until the time of the issuance of the patent, the Office will consider any request for reconsideration of the patent term adjustment due to an error in the calculation of 37 CFR 1.702(b) to be timely if the request for reconsideration is filed within two months of the issuance of the patent. However, as to all other bases for contesting the initial determination of patent term adjustment received with the notice of allowance, applicant must timely file an application for patent term adjustment prior to the payment of the issue fee¹.

To the extent the application requests reconsideration under 37 CFR 1.705(b), the petition is GRANTED.

On September 21, 2009, the Office mailed a Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154(b) in the above-identified application. Applicant was advised that the patent term adjustment to date was 18 days. The period of adjustment was 285 days of PTO delay and 267 days of applicant delay.

On December 17, 2009, the subject application for patent term adjustment was timely filed.²

Applicants state that a period of reduction of 11 days for applicant delay should be entered pursuant to 37 CFR 1.704(c)(8), for the filing of a supplemental paper (IDS) on July 1, 2005, 11 days after the filing of a reply on June 20, 2005.

Upon review, applicants are correct. A review of the record reveals that on July 1, 2005, 11 days after the filing of a reply on June 20, 2005, an IDS was filed. The IDS was not accompanied by the statement set forth in 37 CFR 1.704(d). Therefore, a period of reduction of 11 days for applicant delay will be entered.

Applicants state that a period of reduction of 14 days for applicant delay should be entered pursuant to 37 CFR 1.704(c)(8) for the filing of a supplemental paper (IDS) on October 24, 2006, 14 days after the filing of a reply on October 10, 2006.

Upon review, applicants are correct. A review of the record reveals that on October 24, 2006, 14 days after the filing of a reply on October 10, 2006, an IDS was filed. The IDS was not accompanied by the statement set forth in 37 CFR 1.704(d). Therefore, an additional period of reduction of 14 days for applicant delay will be entered.

Applicants assert that duplicate periods of both Office and applicant delay have been entered. In particular, applicants assert duplicate periods of reduction for applicant delay of 61 days on November 20, 2007; of 4 days on April 21, 2008, and of 33 days on September 15, 2008, respectively, were entered. Further, applicants assert a duplicate period of adjustment for Office delay of 43 days was entered on February 27, 2009.

² A review of PALM records indicates that the issue fee was paid on December 18, 2009.

Upon review, applicants are correct. Duplicate periods of applicant delay of 61 days, 4 days, and 33 days were entered. Additionally, a duplicate period of Office delay of 43 days was entered. The duplicate periods of Office delay and applicant delay will be removed.

In view thereof, the correct determination of patent term adjustment at the time of the mailing of the notice of allowance is FORTY-EIGHT (48) days (242 (108 + 91 + 43) days of PTO delay, reduced by 194 (64 + 2 + 11 + 5 + 14 + 61 + 4 + 33) days of Applicant delay).

The Office acknowledges submission of the $200.00 fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.18(e). No additional fees are required.

The Office of Patent Publication has been advised of this decision. The application is thereby forwarded to the Office of Patent Publication for issuance of the patent. The patent term adjustment indicated on the patent (as shown on the Issue Notification mailed about three weeks prior to patent issuance) will include any additional adjustment accrued both for Office delay in issuing the patent more than four months after payment of the issue fee and satisfaction of all outstanding requirements, and if applicable, for the Office taking in excess of three years to issue the patent (to the extent that the three-year period does not overlap with periods already accorded).

Telephone inquiries regarding this matter should be directed to Senior Petitions Attorney Douglas I. Wood at (571) 272-3231.
